"One Evening in Bagdad"
by Atanur Dogan

Music of Peace

Hear the NSCS perform great works from past seasons as well as newer compositions, all focused on peace and reconciliation. The concert features beloved NSCS accompanist

Sharon Rich Peterson on piano and organ who is joining the singers in movements from Mendelssohn's Elijah, Bach's Mass in B minor, Poulenc's Gloria, Thompson's The Peaceable Kingdom, and Winter's Missa Gaia. Celebrate 80 years of music and peace making with the NSCS and special guests, including former Music Director Donald Chen!

International Friendship

This exciting exchange of musical and cultural traditions features special guests from Japan, the Kyoto Concert Choir with Director Tetsuo Hashio, and Director Gary Geiger and the Evanston Children's Choir. The concert includes music in a variety of different languages: Robert Evan's "Shalom – A Reason for Peace," Oscar Peterson's stirring "Hymn to Freedom," and many others.

Requiem for Peace

This Chicago premiere performance of Larry Nickel's stunning Requiem for Peace features full orchestra and soloists. Performances world-wide are garnering rave reviews. Exciting and dynamic music accompanies the poetry of war-torn nations from around the world, combining in a powerful and transcendent work calling for reconciliation. The composer joins us for a preconcert talk.
